DAILY TRIBUNE.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

FRIDAY MORNING . . . . . . MAY 4, 1855

"SAG NICHTS."

Since the fact became evident, from the result of various elections, and from the givings-out of newspapers, that there is a determination among the American people to cut the cords of the foreign demagogues who have ruled the political affairs of this country, and to dispense with the services of those politicians who have used them to secure the domination of party and the triumph of persons, at the expense of the general weal, the Douglas organs have declaimed, loudly and bitterly, with the utmost show of honesty that they could command, against the organization of secret political societies. The purity of purpose inflaming the immaculate patriots who control those precious sheets, is now shown by the fact that there has been all the while going on in the Douglas and pro-slavery camp a scheme for embodying the whole foreign population of the country into a society, the members of which are bound by oaths, pass-words, signs, grips, by secrecy, discipline and leadership, compared to which, the like machinery among the K. N.'s is said to be harmless indeed. This organization is known as the "Sag Nichts," and it is understood that the object of the society is the re-establishment of the old order of things, the restoration of the Slave-Democracy, the increase of the power of Catholicism over the consciences of men, the re-investiture of the foreign population with the control of the political affairs of our country, the defeat of all the efforts of temperance men for the suppression and prevention of crime, through the agency of the principle of Prohibition, the indefinite extension of slavery, and, last of all, the widening of our territorial limits in the direction of slave countries by treaty of cession, annexation or otherwise. Though the society bears a German name, it is devised chiefly for the Catholic Irish, and for those Americans in name, who are willing to march under the Irish and Papal banner. Liberal Germans whose opinions are known to favor the freedom of our territories, the curbing of the slave power, and the enjoyment of the country we now possess, without a war of conquest for more, are not admitted to the inmost recesses of the lodges organized upon this basis. They may be inducted within the portals and allowed to see enough of the machinery—a show of liberality to citizens of foreign birth, for the purpose of winning their support; but the ultimate ends and aims of the scheme are studiously concealed from view. Considering a society with such a programme of principles and objects, the modesty evinced by the Nebraska editors in their writings against all secret political associations, surpasses the understanding of other men. Let us advise those of our readers who would maintain the purity of our elections, and who wish and are willing to work for the triumph of Republican and American principles, to keep an eye on the Sag Nichts. The place of meeting in this city and the names of the officers will soon be forthcoming.

BISHOP HUGHES AND MR. BROOKS.

The controversy between Bishop Hughes and Mr. Brooks of the N. Y. Express, wherein the Bishop is getting the worst part of the bargain, is going on with vigor. The question at issue is the amount of church property under the Bishop's control, and the turning point in the dispute is whether a lease for 999 years, at an annual rental of one cent, is a conveyance or not, Mr. Brooks taking the affirmative and †John the negative. Outside of the exposition that will be made of the affairs of this prelate, the controversy will do much good in arousing the country to the danger of permitting the vast possessions of the Catholic Church in the United States to accumulate in the hands of the Bishop of that Church, in such a way as to be beyond the direction of the laity. The controversy arose, as our readers will remember, from the difficulty in Buffalo between the trustees of the Church of St. Louis, and Timon the Bishop of that diocese. It was transferred from Buffalo to the New York Legislature by the introduction of Mr. Palmer's bill limiting the amount of property that can be legally held by ecclesiastics; and it has now become the property of the public journals—a direction of the quarrel little desired by the Catholic dignitaries who are not in the habit of giving such publicity to their affairs, and who covet, above all things, the profoundest silence in whatever relates to the temporalities of the Church. We hope the discussion may go on until the facts as they exist are really shown—until it is evident to every reader in the country that, according to the canons of Catholicism the title of all property for the use of the Church is vested in the Bishop of that Church—that they cannot dispose of, or even encumber it without the consent of the Pope whose spiritual and temporal servants they are; let it appear that the oath of allegiance taken by their Bishops renouncing "all allegiance to every foreign Prince, Potentate and Power," is a mere farce; and then let the remedy be applied.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

Miss Kimberly is at present playing an engagement at the Metropolitan Theatre. She appeared as Lady Gay Spanker in "London Assurance" on Monday evening last. The Buffalo Republic of Tuesday devotes a leader of over a column in length, to a judicious, searching and severe critique upon the performance. It paints Miss Kimberly exactly as she is—devoid of talent, prone to egotism and provincialisms, and tame, heartless and ineffective. Not half a dozen of the audience remained in the dress circle at the close of the fifth act. There is no actress on the American stage that has been puffed to a more extravagant degree than Miss Kimberly. Generally accompanied by a friend, whose assurance equalled his belief in her wonderful powers, she has succeeded in obtaining extravagant and laudatory notices in the columns of many papers, which, left to their own judgment, would have spoken of her in terms of deserved censure. The Chicago TRIBUNE was the first paper in the West to speak of her faults and unpardonable presumption as it deserved, and we are glad to see that a more just tone since then, has pervaded the notices which have been made of her. The stage can never be made to fulfill its true mission, until the press does its full duty in rebuking impostors and exposing presumption and incompetency, as well as awarding just praise and encouragement to true merit, and we are rejoiced to see a more independent, self-reliant and fearless criticism practiced by those to whose hands are now entrusted the discussion of the merits of the artists aspiring to public favor on the stage. The series of critiques which have lately appeared in the New York Tribune upon Edwin Forrest have been very severe, but in the main just and true, and they have done much to refine and exalt the public taste, which is too apt, after all, to suffer itself to be guided by the mere prestige of popularity and renown, than by the more quiet but far more searching test of true merit.

Notice—Sabbath Convention.

The Southern Illinois Sabbath Association holds its next session at Jacksonville, commencing (with an address) on Tuesday evening May 15th, and continuing until Thursday, May 17th, the day for the meeting of the State Congregational Association, at Jacksonville, and of the Gen. Assembly at St. Louis. The exercises will consist of Addresses and Discourses. All who are interested—whether as Christians, or as men—in the better observance of the Sabbath, are invited to visit and take part in the deliberations. Those coming over the Great Western Railroad, (Ill.) will receive return passes free. Those intending to be present, are requested to address Rev. J. M. Sturtevant, D. D., Jacksonville, President of the Society, that arrangements may be made for their reception. G. A. LEARY,
Sec. S. W. Ill. Sabbath Association.

A PORTRAIT.—The Utica Herald, (a Seward Whig journal,) gives the following portrait of its present candidate, the N. Y. Times:—

OPINIONS.—The New York Times is in some respects a remarkable journal. The facility with which it adapts itself to the whims of the hour, is astonishing. There is hardly a public question in which it has not occupied at least two different and diametrically opposite positions. Its course in reference to the Maine Law is a good illustration of the characteristic of which we speak. Previous to the passage of the bill a year ago, it was mum on the question. When Governor Seymour vetoed the bill, and the veto was likely to prove popular, it took a decided stand not only against the bill, but also against the principle of prohibition. Six months later, its principal editor specifically pledged himself in favor of a bill "similar in its provisions" to that vetoed by Governor Seymour, and denied the authorship of the Anti-Maine Law article in the Times. During the past winter, it has been mum, while the Lieutenant Governor voted for its passage. Now, however, awaking to the opposition raised against it in New York, it comes out plumply against the bill, and regrets that fanaticism should have been triumphant in the Legislature.

6th Judicial District.

The people of Rock Island have placed in nomination the name of T. Wilson Drury, as candidate for Circuit Judge of the 6th District, composed of the counties of Rock Island, Henry, Whiteside, Lee, Ogle, and Carroll. Mr. Drury is a Douglas Nebraska man, but as he ignores all politics in his present position and is an admirable lawyer, it is probable he will be elected.

SQUATTER SOVEREIGNTY.

Were it not for the recent election in Kansas many of the anti-slavery editors of this country would be without a theme. And yet we cannot see the abhorrent perpetrations of villainy which it is supposed marked that civil contest. The truth is these atrocities are merely imaginary—a moral mirage seen only from the stand point of those who occupy fanatical positions, and who presume to judge of others by a code of their own, dignified as "the higher law." A few philanthropic individuals at New York and other Eastern points, for the purpose of making "assurance doubly sure," thought proper to pick up from the highways and byways a number of individuals whom they styled emigrants, and sent out to Kansas. The object was to govern the elections of that Territory, and thus lead to its admission into the Union as a free State.—These emigrants, with a few dollars furnished them, started on their journey, but only a portion reached their destination. The balance allured by more eligible locations along the route, stopped in Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and a few, likely, in Missouri. They were under no very commanding obligations to obey the philanthropists who sent them forth; and if they were, many were of that class who do not recognize an obligation under pressing or even ordinary circumstances. A great deal cannot be expected of men who for a bounty of twenty dollars are willing to remove to a distant section, or who occupy positions, where a paltry sum of that kind can exercise an influence of such importance over their destiny. A large number of those who made the entire trip, and finally pitched their tents on the prairie of that distant land, became disheartened before the winter was over, and retraced their steps. Cold and destitution are powerful opponents to fanaticism, and well calculated to bring a man to his sober senses in a very short period of time and by a process of conviction that leaves a lasting impression on the mind. It will thus be seen that a large portion of the forces relied upon by the anti-slavery party were not in the field when the fight came off, and hence the signal defeat which attended the movement.

The citizens of Missouri have received, and are still receiving, the most unmitigated censure for a supposed violation, on their part, of the rights of the elective franchise. They are represented as ruffians, cut-throats, lawless and reckless pro-slavery men, disposed, by any means, and in every possible way, to make Kansas a slave State. The facts, so far elicited, do not justify such accusations and charges. A few writers, who accompanied the different emigrant parties from the Northern States, and whose business it is to fulminate thunder suitable to the ears of those under whose auspices they travel and write, have given perverted statements of parties and transactions, and on these statements the people of a portion of Missouri are stigmatized with acts of atrocity and despotism the most shameful and oppressive.

Would it not be more in accordance with facts, so far as facts have been developed, to attribute the result of the recent election in Kansas rather to the desertion of the emigrants engaged by the philanthropists, than to the bowie knives and revolvers of the Missourians?

The "noise and confusion" made by the opponents of Squatter Sovereignty, in the first instance, was impolitic, and the creation of the emigration fund may be safely stated as a bad speculation; but this charge against the people of Missouri is grossly unjust.—St. Louis Republican.

—The Republican out-herods Herod. The Missouri Slaveholders and Slavery Propagandists who invaded the territory of Kansas with arms in their hands and imprecations upon their lips, for the purpose of committing what in the mildest language must be termed an act of unmitigated rascality and barbarism, never dreamed of offering for their defence such an excuse as the Republican has manufactured for them.—The Republican calls it a civil contest, and can see no "infamy" in the perpetration of outrages until then unheard of in the history of civilization. There are none so blind as those who will not see. Did we not know the spirit which controls the columns of that sheet too well to be deceived, we should imagine that the article was ironical—that it seemed to defend what it meant to denounce. The argument by which it seeks to screen the people of Missouri from the infamy which now rests upon them, for their allowance of and participation in the acts of Mob Law and Vandalism which characterized the late Kansas Election, is indeed a curious one.—Because, as it falsely asserts, a portion of the emigrants from New England failed to reach Kansas, and because a portion of those who had reached there returned to their Eastern homes, driven away by starvation and cold, it was no crime, no infamy, but a "civil contest," for three thousand Missourians, armed to the teeth and ready for deeds of murder, rapine and spoil, to invade the Territory, take forcible possession of the polls, and driving from them the legal sovereigns of the soil, elect a set of men abhorrent in every respect to the people of the Territory, and pledged to a warfare against her best interests. Strange logic, this! No mind unaccustomed to practice upon the maxim of might makes right could have entertained for a moment such miserable sophistry. Because, forsooth, the farm of Libertas is newly settled, and his children young and weak, it is no crime, no infamy, only a civil contest, for his rough and savage neighbors to invade his home, to turn him out of doors, to threaten, abuse and slay his children, and to wrest from him forever the hermitage upon which he had hoped to live and die in peace!

The New England settlers of Kansas need no defence against the slanders of the St. Louis Republican. There is not one among them but who will yet do good and loyal service in the cause of freedom. If the time comes, as there is too much reason to believe it will, when hand to hand and foot to foot, the men of the North meet the Slavery Propagandists of the South in mortal struggle on the yet pure soil of Kansas, battling for Freedom, Truth and Righteousness, against Despotism in its darkest and most loathsome form, the blood which watered the soil of New England in our Revolutionary struggle, and from which has sprung up armed men, will not disgrace its source. In that day, if not before, the St. Louis Republican and the men whose organ it is, will learn to their sorrow, that the Sons of the Puritans, fighting upon their own soil for their homes, their Freedom, and the Rights of Man, are not only invincible but revengeful foes.

THE CITIES OF THE UPPER MISSISSIPPI.

Every day, as we examine our exchange list, we are reminded of the growing importance of the young and rising cities that are growing up on the Upper Mississippi. Daily do they send to us a heavy pile of well got up newspapers, which discuss the vital questions of the day, make suggestions for the advancement of the interests of the Northwest, contain the freshest news of the day, and are, in short, complete Western daily journals. We wonder, sometimes, that Dubuque, Keokuk, Burlington, Davenport and Rock Island can support, some of them one and others as many as three, daily papers. They are all within easy reach of St. Louis and Chicago, and the journals of these cities circulate freely among them. But that is not enough for the thriving, wide-awake, go-ahead people of the Northwest. They must have their own local papers and that too without stint.

We believe the world would be searched in vain for a set of more vigorous, thrifty, promising and advancing young cities than those on the banks of the Upper Mississippi. With the great artery of the West, in front of them, and a region behind them, whose soil is unrivalled in fertility, and whose agricultural treasures are beyond all estimate, they need nothing, but an industrious population to swell their growing proportions into a huge maturity. And that population they have. The Northwest is no place for lazy men and loafers. Those who live there are ever pushing forward, and never behind the times. They work, trade, buy, sell, talk, and write with a vigor that shows they are imbued with the go-ahead spirit of the age.

Iowa, we have ever believed, is destined to be one of the foremost States of the Northwest. Her soil cannot be surpassed, her climate is just the kind to nourish a hardy and enterprising people, her streams, though not large, are numerous and afford a good water power, and a thrifty population is fast pouring across the Mississippi to find a home of plenty within her borders. Though young, she is looking forward, and her cities already project railways with an earnestness which shows that the projecting will soon be followed by the execution. Even now, when so many eyes are directed towards Kansas, Iowa is not overlooked. Emigrants throng, on every steamer, to her cities, in quest of employment and a home.—Soon, she will begin to exercise a vast influence on the destiny of the West, and speak with a strong voice, in the councils of the nation. Her cities are not so close to St. Louis and Chicago as to be overshadowed by the proportions of these two growing rivals. They have a trade on which they can grow forever, and on which St. Louis and Chicago too, can grow. Iowa and Northern Illinois may be proud of their young cities, and St. Louis may look with delight on the increasing evidence of their wealth and importance.—St. Louis Intelligencer.

FAILURE OF THE QUITMAN EXPEDITION.—A Natchez correspondent of the New York Tribune states under the date of the 19th ult., that the Quitman Cuban Expedition is dead. "About one million of dollars have been expended, steamers purchased and chartered, and a large amount expended in muskets, revolvers and gun powder, but everything has gone wrong."

ANOTHER BANK WINDING UP.—The "Bank of the West," located at Madison, Wisconsin, is closing up its business, and gives notice that the outstanding circulating notes will, for the present be redeemed at the State Bank at Madison.

☞ Ex-President FILLMORE left Buffalo, on Tuesday last, for Europe. He will embark for Liverpool in a few days.

THE LAW'S DELAY.—On Wednesday, a curious incident happened in the Supreme Court in Boston. Judge Shaw was on the bench, and at the commencement of the docket, number one was the first called, but it appeared that it was not ready for trial. Upon this the Judge arose and stated, that he himself, as counsel, had entered that suit long before he became a Judge. He has been on the bench more than twenty-three years.—Salem Reg.

Bounty Land Claims Rejected.

Over 150,000 applications for bounty land made under the act of March 3d, have been received at the Pension Office, nearly one-half of which have been rejected, and suspended, because of informality in presenting the claims.

Rejected and suspended claims lie over until those properly presented are disposed of; hence the necessity of the presentation of claims as required by the Pension Bureau.

L. F. Ingham, Esq., formerly of Washington City, whose office is over the Bank of Commerce and Telegraph Office, corner of Lake and Clark streets, in this city, and James K. Stewart, Esq., of Washington, formerly attached to the army as a volunteer, and seven years Examining Clerk in the Pension Office, give their special attention to such rejected and suspended claims, and claims of all descriptions arising under the Pension Bounty Land Laws.

They refer to the Hon. L. P. Waldo, Commissioner of Pensions, and S. Cole, Esq., Chief Clerk Pension Office.

FIRES FOR THREE MONTHS.—Conflagrations continue to sweep away property from this country, at a rate exceeding one million of dollars per month. The record for March shows no diminution from this sum. The following table exhibits the total loss of property by fire during the first quarter of the present year:

January,	$1,325,000
February,	949,000
March,	1,608,000
Total,	$3,882,000

In addition, very destructive fires have raged in the forests of South Carolina, Georgia and North Carolina, indicating losses which cannot be estimated. Three Southern towns have been nearly destroyed during the quarter, viz: Grenada, in Mississippi, Gainesville, in Alabama and Sandersville, in Georgia.

CATHOLIC TOLERATION.—The Florence correspondent of the London Christian Times gives an account of the condemnation, to a year's imprisonment, of Domenico Cecchetti, a Tuscan peasant, for the crime of having in his possession and reading a copy of Diodati's Bible and two copies of the Testament. As long as the Catholics, under the very nose of the Pope, exercise such tyrannous power, what excuse can they find for complaining of a strict government surveillance over the temporal affairs of their church in the United States? In Tuscany it is imprisonment for Protestants to read the Bible; in America it is persecution if Catholics are refused the control of both Church and State.

☞ The Dubuque Daily Observer is defunct. It has been discontinued for want of support. It had only 180 subscribers. The Weekly Observer is still continued.

THE QUARREL.—The editors of the Times and Tribune, New York, are engaged in a bitter personal quarrel which, when we remember the homilies that each has preached upon the dignity of the Press and the duty of Editors to refrain from personalities, is particularly refreshing.

OFF FOR KANSAS.—The Madison Journal announces that Mr. W. W. Wyman, long connected with the press at the Capital, has sold out his hotel there and is about leaving for Kansas.

☞ The Green Bay Advocate invites one Foss, a Rhode Island editor, to come to Green Bay this summer, and bring the "little fossils" along.

A CASE OF CRUELTY.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Paris, Ky., under date April 12th, gives the details of a case of horrible cruelty to slaves, which occurred in that vicinity. We copy below the testimony of one of the witnesses, which narrates the nature of the offence committed.

"Mr. David Montgomery, of revolutionary descent, testified that on the first Monday in March, which was County Court day, the younger girl above spoken ran into his house in a state of complete nakedness, and that her first words besought them "to please let her warm by their fire." Upon examination by this neighbor and wife the girl was found to have been most cruelly treated. She showed burns that evidently were made with hot irons upon her neck, her face, her hands, under both arms, between her legs both behind and before, besides bruises upon her head, and bleeding at the ears. She had that evening chill after chill. This neighbor acted humanely and manly, and the miserable girl was soon enveloped in a comforter before his fire, and he sallied out in search of other neighbors, determined to have them witness the horrid spectacle. Unfortunately, nearly all of them were in Paris. He succeeded, however, in finding two, who saw the girl while at his house. He then, in company with one of them, went to Mr. Lewis' house—he also being in town. Upon the ringing of the bell, Mrs. Lewis presented herself at the door. A short conversation ensued, in which Mrs. Lewis acknowledged that she had corrected the girl, and that she had bade her never show herself again in her presence. Mr. M. replied that she was in a very bad condition, and that she had better send for her; upon which the door was shut in their faces. It was also made known to members of the Grand Jury, though not in the Jury-room, by white men in Mr. Lewis's employment that Sally (who is a grown woman, and, I think, the mother of children) was stripped by Mrs. Lewis's directions entirely naked, and her heels tied up to a tree about four or five feet from the ground. She then made a negro man force the pump, and another negro woman direct the hose so as to drench her with water, while she would stand off a pace and pelt her with stones until she would tire, and then she would take to her more favorite method of torture, the hot iron. The reason these men in Mr. Lewis's employment were not summoned before the Grand Jury was, that there was a sufficiency of testimony without them, especially in the case of the younger girl. Had they been summoned, Mr. Lewis would have anticipated the whole proceedings and put the negroes out of the way—a thing that the neighbors were very anxious to prevent, for they had volunteered their information to the Jury, and wished it confirmed by the appearance of the negroes. The writer of this saw the slaves in the jail, in company with divers other gentlemen of Paris and Bourbon county, and I will say that Sally had old scars upon her back as large as one's hands; sores upon her hips, thighs and legs, that could scarcely be covered with the palm of the hand. The smaller one's condition has been described above. She came to jail with no other clothing on than a linsey dress."

Though the Mrs. Lewis above described belonged to one of the first families, and was reputed the wealthiest in the county, the neighbors had enough of the sense of justice left to make complaint of her barbarity, which was followed by an indictment by the Grand Jury, and order from the court to take possession of the slaves and sell them under the provisions of the statute in such cases made and provided. The slaves were offered for sale and were bid in by an agent of Mrs. Lewis, who moved them to parts unknown,—whether to be subjected to renewed torture, or not, the writer is not informed. The details of the transaction reveal the revolting possibilities of the slave system, and they show how far a barbarous and inhuman master or mistress can go and not become amenable the law in any punishment that such a monster would feel. The writer concludes his letter as follows:

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" has had an extensive reading in Kentucky. The majority of its readers, I think, deem it a faithful and fair work. But some have said that Mrs Stowe was unjust in representing a master selling his favorite servant, and that she took more pains to depict the Legrees than the Shelbys. It is known, however, that good servants have been sold; and it is also known that no female character is personated in the book that equals or approximates to Mrs. Lewis in cruelty and inhumanity.

MORE WANTED.—The Milwaukee Free Democrat announces that the Glover Trials Rescue Fund now amounts to $1,253. Something like $600 more is needed, which will be collected without doubt.

☞ Four of the five companies of Detroit, Nos. one, five, six, and eight, have formally disbanded, and surrendered up their engines, hose, &c., to the city. The reason for this extraordinary step is the passage of an ordinance by the Common Council, from running the engines on the sidewalks in the paved parts of the city, and in day time. The Council have adopted this regulation in consequence of the great danger to citizens resulting from the practice of firemen running their engines on the sidewalks during the business part of the day, when crowded with pedestrians. Several accidents have occurred by the practice, one at least, resulting in death.

SUMMER TRAVEL ON THE LAKES.

We find in the New York Tribune the following compendium of the arrangements which have been made for the summer travel on the Lakes and St. Lawrence River, and transfer it to our columns, as a matter of direct interest to many of our readers:

On Lake Ontario, the Ontario and St. Lawrence Steamboat Company have arranged a daily mail line, which will touch at all the American ports between Ogdensburgh on the St. Lawrence, and Lewiston, at the head of the lake. The line will consist of the following boats until the 11th of June:

Ontario, Capt. H. N. Throop; W. B. Phelps, Clerk.

Bay State, Capt. J. H. Ledyard; L. D. Cooper, Clerk.

Cataract, Capt. J. B. Estes; Wm. White, Clerk.

Niagara, Capt. George Eggleston; Samuel Barton, Clerk.

On the 11th of June, the Express line between Lewiston and Ogdensburgh, touching at Kingston, will be formed of the Bay State and New York, when the Northerner will come into the mail line in place of the Bay State.

The Jenny Lind, British Empire, and a new steamer, will form the daily line between Ogdensburgh and Montreal.

All of the above steamers have been overhauled and repainted, and are as good as new. The Northerner has received a new cylinder, and the Cataract a new beam and other parts of the engine, which were damaged by an accident last fall.

The following are the Time-tables of last season which will be substantially those of this:

The steamers on this lake have generally been well and carefully managed, and worthily fulfilled the expectations of their patrons.

On Lake Erie the Boats of the Michigan Central Railroad Company will occupy a prominent place. They are:

The Western World—Commander, L. H. Cotton; Clerk, W. B. Phelps, formerly of the Mayflower; Engineer, Henry Lawrence; Steward, M. R. Wormer.

The Plymouth Rock—Commander, J. H. Barker; Clerk, John Evans; Engineer, John Edwards; Steward, D. C. Wilcox.

The Buckeye State—Commander, S. C. Andrews; Clerk, G. B. Noble; Engineer, L. L. Buhl; Steward, J. Larkin.

The boats will commence running as soon as navigation opens to Buffalo. We are glad to notice that bar-rooms are banished from these boats. Several important improvements have recently been made in the Plymouth Rock and Western World, and no expense has been spared to furnish them with every convenience and comfort. The boilers have been moved forward more than twenty feet, which will give an increased speed, and overcome the difficulties which were experienced last season. The most useful and necessary change is in ventilation.—The state-rooms have been much enlarged, and are abundantly supplied with fresh air, through apertures at the sides of the boats; they will accommodate, comfortably, five hundred persons. They are, in every way, richly and elegantly fitted up, and nothing which money can procure is wanting to contribute to the comfort or gratify the taste of the traveler. The Buckeye State—a well known and favorite boat on the line—has been refitted and painted, and is in excellent condition.

Charles B. Swain, Esq., of Detroit, is the general agent of this line. The days of sailing, to commence immediately upon the opening of navigation at Buffalo, are as follows:

The Western World will leave Buffalo Monday and Thursday, and Detroit Wednesday and Saturday.

The Plymouth Rock will leave Buffalo Tuesday and Friday, and Detroit Monday and Thursday.

The Buckeye State will leave Buffalo Wednesday and Saturday, and Detroit Tuesday and Friday.

The Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railroad Company, running in connection with the New York Central Railroad, will employ three fine low pressure steamers (the Empire State, Southern Michigan, and Northern Indiana) to form a daily line between Buffalo and Monroe, leaving Buffalo every evening after the arrival of the Express Train from New York, connecting at Monroe the next day with the 2 P. M. Express Train, which arrives at Chicago at 11 o'clock same evening. Leaving Monroe at 6:30 A. M. for Buffalo direct, arriving there the same evening in time for the 11 o'clock Express Train for Albany, New York and Boston.

The Empire State, J. Wilson, Commander, leaves Buffalo Mondays and Thursdays; leaves Monroe Wednesdays and Saturdays.

The Southern Michigan, A. D. Perkins, Commander, leaves Buffalo Tuesdays and Fridays; leaves Monroe Mondays and Thursdays.

The Northern Indiana, I. T. Pheat, Commander, leaves Buffalo Wednesdays and Saturdays; leaves Monroe Tuesdays and Fridays.

First class steamers on Lake Michigan, will run to and from ports north of Chicago, viz: Waukegan, Kenosha, Racine, Milwaukee and Sheboygan, in connection with this line.

These are the main American Lines, connecting the East and the West by water. Travelling around through Lakes Huron and Michigan, to reach the Mississippi, is, of course, now a mere matter of pleasure, and very little of that is done. There will be, undoubtedly, several boats up for excursions of this sort during the hot weather, especially for reaching Lake Superior. There are also a number of side lines to various places along the lakes and rivers, but their notices have not reached us.

While there are railroads on either side of Lake Erie, and along the southern shore of Lake Ontrria, there will no doubt be a vast amount of travel on the boats, both for relief from the fatigue of the railroad and for an opportunity to examine the magnificent scenery presented in such a glorious panorama along these inland seas and their noble outlet, the island strewn St. Lawrence.

FOR CHICAGO.

Among the clearances from the port of Buffalo, on the 2d inst., were the following, all for Chicago:

Propellors Illinois, Dixon; and Mount Vernon, Bennett; barque White Cloud, Brown; brig S. F. Gale, Bryan, 100 tons railroad iron; brig Andes, Kyle, 105 tons railroad iron, 75 tons stoves, 285 doz. pails, 20 do tubs; schooners Ivanhoe, Galligan; Arctic, Pratt; Robert Emmett, McCarty; Albatros, Bartlett; M. H. Sibley, Averill; Coral, Dwyer; North Star, Newton, 220 tons coal; J. W. Brown, 180 do; Wings of the Morning, Rumage; H. C. Winslow, Anderson; Advance, Faith. Palmetto, Jackson; Thomas Dyer, Wiley, 1787 bars railroad iron.

The Buffalo Express of the 2d says:

STEAMER LADY ELGIN.—This favorite steamer, under the command of Capt. L. Chamberlain, having been thoroughly refitted and newly painted, is now receiving freight at Reed's dock, Long Wharf, and will leave on her first trip to Chicago, on Saturday next. She is to run during the season between Collingwood and Chicago, in connection with the Ontario, Simcoe and Huron railroad.

The propeller Illinois, with a full cargo of merchandise, left for Chicago yesterday morning, and at dusk last evening was only some two miles out.

It will be seen by reference to our Marine List, that quite a number of vessels have taken their clearances at the Custom House, and are ready to leave as soon as the ice will permit.

MARINE NEWS.

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser of Tuesday says:

FIRST CLEARANCES—THE CANAL.—At the Canal Collector's office in this city, up to 11 o'clock this morning, ten boats had taken clearances. The first to clear was the Hendrick Hudson—the first, with a cargo, was the boat Revenue of Troy—47,000 feet of lumber. The water was let in at Tonawanda yesterday afternoon, and at Black Rock this morning. No difficulties are apprehended.

THE CANALS.—The Canal, says the Rochester Advertiser, afternoon of the 30th, is filling slowly, but it was thought there would be water enough in it to-day to meet all demands upon it. The water from the West had not yet turned the current East. The Evening Journal, also, of yesterday afternoon, 30th, from information received at the Canal Department, says there is no doubt all the canals will be ready for navigation to-day throughout the entire line.

THE WHEAT CROP.—We have seen, says the Cincinnati Gazette, within a few days, a number of gentlemen from different parts of this State and of Indiana, who bear almost unbroken evidence of the fine appearance of the young crop of wheat that is coming.

NAVIGATION ON LAKE WINNEBAGO.—From the Oshkosh (Wisconsin) Courier, we learn that steamers on this lake are now making their regular trips. The Peytona arrives daily from Fond du Lac, loaded with passengers and freight. The Barlow, Eureka, and Knapp are running regularly on the Wolfe and Fox rivers.

WELLAND CANAL.

THE STRAITS OPEN! FIRST ARRIVAL FROM BELOW!

Much to the gratification of our merchants and forwarders, the staunch propeller Forest City, Capt. Harvey Pheatt, made her appearance in the bay at 5 1-2 P. M. yesterday, with all her flags flying, and steamed gallantly into harbor and up the river, bringing to at Dousman's dock, being the first arrival through the straits this season. The Forest City may well carry the broom, as this is the third year in which she has led the way. In 1853, she was the first vessel through the straits, arriving here April 18th; and last year she arrived April 25th, being anticipated by the steamer Globe only half an hour.

Capt. Pheatt left Cleveland on Thursday evening last, and has come along without detention. He states that there is no ice of any consequence in the Straits, and recommends all vessels bound down to "let 'er rip!" He reports having met the barque Badger State, hence, bound down, near Old Mackinac, and the brig Empire State, also from here, bound down, this side of Mackinac. He also passed the sch'r Republic, of this port, and bound here with a cargo of railroad iron, and she is expected to arrive hourly. Also saw quite a fleet of vessels at various points along through the Straits, but at too great a distance to recognize them.

The Forest City has a cargo of about 40 tons of iron and other mechandise from Cleveland.—She will discharge immediately, and load with flour, provisions, &c., for Buffalo. The five-eighths interest in her, purchased in the fall by Geo. Stephens, of this city, has just been sold by him to Mr. Ensign, of Buffalo, for $12,000, a low price, as the vessel is in capital order, and is withal a lucky, with a first rate commander. A successful season to her.—Milwaukee Sentinel, Wednesday.

SNAKE.—Mr. Wise having called the American party "lousy," in a certain speech before the sovereigns of Virginia, the Louisville Journal says:

We rather think that Mr. Wise must have made his very tasteful remark after scratching his head for an idea.

☞ Over 100,000 copies of Barnum's Autobiography have been sold in England—without the slightest pecuniary advantage however, to the author.

☞ The London Weekly Chronicle, speaking of reprinted American Literature, describes Fanny Fern as "a dreadful person—a species of idiotic Mrs. Trollope, possessing all that lady's want of refinement, but without one atom of her wit." Good.

☞ The Grand Jury of Baltimore have found true bills against Captain White and his two mates, late of the ship James Cheston, abandoned at sea.

☞ Mayor Wood, of New York, has determined to publish, immediately after the 1st of May, the names of all the owners of property let for gambling houses or dens of lewdness.

MARRIED,

On the 29th April, by the Rev. J. C. Burroughs, Mr. JOSEPH BARSTOW to Miss SARAH McMULEN, all of Chicago.

HAVE YOU A DISEASED LIVER.

☞ The question, though startling, is sufficiently suggestive, when the fact is taken into consideration that diseases of the Liver have become most alarmingly frequent in the United States. Indeed, there are few formidable diseases that are not in some way traceable to a deranged state of that important organ. Many of the complaints usually classed under the head of Consumption, have their origin in the Liver. "Any remedy that would insure regularity and healthful action in the Liver, would be a blessing to mankind!" has been the exclamation of thousands. That remedy has been found: it is safe and sure. When a fair trial has been afforded it, it has never been known to fail.

Reader, have you any disease of the Liver, or disease which you believe proceeds from hepatic derangement? Lose not a moment, but purchase a box of Dr. M'Lane's Pills, and they will restore you to health. It is the only remedy yet discovered, in which implicit confidence may be placed.

☞ Purchasers will please be careful to ask for Dr. M'Lane's CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, and take none else. There are other Pills, purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public.

P. S.—Dr. McLane's Celebrated Vermifuge, also his Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in this city.

From the Boston Traveller.

Dr. Weaver's well-known medicines continue to maintain their high position in the public esteem, which fact is quite natural, if not inevitable, when their rare virtues are taken into account. His CANKER AND SALT RHEUM SYRUP is one of the best medicines ever compounded, and has been the happy medium of curing many a case of Canker, which other preparations had failed to do. His CANKER CURE AND CERATE is equally meritorious and effective. Those who have cankerous affections should understand the necessity of the best of medicines, since any other are only aids and comforts to the disease.—Boston Travel.

PIANO-FORTE TUNING & REGULATING.

IT is with much pleasure that I recommend Mr. K. T. HURLBUT, as a Piano Forte Tuner and Regulator. To say that he is an excellent Tuner would not be doing him justice; for I can, without hesitation, say, that he is capable of tuning a Piano as near to perfection as it is possible for a Piano to be tuned: but the greatest recommendation for him, is the unusual length of time which his Pianos remain in tune. I have never, either in Europe or America, seen a man who I would so cheerfully and with so much confidence, employ to tune or regulate a Piano Forte as Mr. Hurlbut, as cheerfully recommend him to all who want pianos tuned.

☞ Orders left at H. BRABANT'S Music Store, 70 Lake street; or Dr. Hurlbut's office, 3 Warner's Hall, Randolph street, will be promptly attended to. my1 1m CLAIRVOYANCE!

DR. PRICE, CLAIRVOYANT PHYSICIAN, from the CITY of SYRACUSE, will visit CHICAGO (Tremont House) on Wednesday and Thursday, May 9th and 10th, for the purpose of giving the sick an opportunity of an examination of their diseases by the power of clairvoyance.

Examination hours from 8 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Terms for examining and prescribing a cure (if curable) from one to five dollars.

N. B.—Dr. PRICE possesses wonderful clairvoyant powers, THE BEST IN THE WORLD for the treatment of Chronic diseases. He not only describes to patients their diseases, but he also describes the symptoms they may experience.

Read the following expression from the "Syracuse Daily Journal":—

By an advertisement in another column we observe that Dr. Price, who has practised Medical Clairvoyance in this city for several years, purposes to visit some of the Western States, so as to accommodate invalids who are not well enough to visit him at Syracuse. If he proves as successful in curing patients West, as he has in Syracuse, we believe his tour will not be in vain. For, notwithstanding our scepticism in marvelous doctrines, we must admit that Dr. Price has established a reputation as being one of the most reliable Medical Clairvoyants in the world for the treatment of Chronic Diseases.—[Syracuse Daily Jour. my2 wd&tf

DAILY TRIBUNE.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

LOCAL MATTERS.

THE TRIBUNE.—Rumor hath it that the Tribune has changed hands; that its name is to be altered, and that its present principles and policy are to be abandoned. The only semblance of truth in the rumor is, that the number of proprietors and editors is to be increased, and the establishment put upon a basis of magnitude and strength unequalled by any other one West of New York. This arrangement will be announced in due time, and in the meantime the friends of the Tribune may be satisfied with the assurance that it will remain true and consistent in the support and advocacy of all measures that are calculated to advance the interests of Temperance, Morality and Religion, and to increase the strength of the Republican party.

This brief explanation is made unwillingly, and only to correct the unauthorized and contradictory rumors that are afloat. More soon.

The New Police Ordinance.

The Times don't like the manner in which the Police force of the city has been recently re-organized. Its ire is particularly directed against that provision of the New Ordinance, which, while it increases the police force to eighty men, divides them into three watches, so that two-thirds of the force shall be resting while the other third is on duty. The objection, if seriously made, shows the ignorance of the writer of what constitutes the very life and efficacy of a police force; namely, the existence of a body of men at such a spot and in such a condition, that they can be brought into ACTIVE AND EFFICIENT SERVICE AT A MOMENT'S WARNING. It is not the mere and actual presence of policemen that deters evil-doers from the commission of crimes, but rather a knowledge of the fact they will probably be discovered, and so strong a force instantly summoned that escape or resistance will be impossible.

Under the former system twenty-eight watchmen patrolled (or were supposed to patrol) the city throughout the entire night, or twelve hours. Now it must be evident to every one that no set of men in the world could perform such duties as were required of these men, for twelve hours on a stretch, and night after night in succession. They must have become weary and incompetent towards morning, and it would not be strange if they became drowsy and sleepy during the very hours that their services were required most. We do not know that this has ever been the case, but it would not be at all surprising.

Then again, these twenty-eight men constituted the entire night force. There was no reserve force. Suppose from two to five o'clock in the morning, ALL the watchmen were so overcome with drowsiness and fatigue as to be unable properly to discharge their duties. What a splendid chance for burglars and thieves would be then presented. "Who shall keep the city when the watchmen sleep?"

Under the present arrangement, the night force is not materially decreased in number, while its efficacy is greatly increased. The number of policemen on night duty will not be less than twenty-seven, besides a lieutenant and a sergeant, making twenty-nine. These twenty-nine men will be fresh and vigorous. They will only have to be on duty eight hours. They will have rested during the previous sixteen hours. There will be besides, in their immediate vicinity, an equal body of men as a reserved corps, who can, if necessary, be summoned to their assistance at a moment's warning. Thus the city will be guarded in reality by a force of between fifty and sixty men, all in good condition and in a high state of discipline, while only thirty of them are on actual duty, but these thirty, however, wide awake and fresh and vigorous.

We have not been careful to count the cost of the new arrangement. It will no doubt be somewhat greater than the late police force. But no reasonable man will complain of this. Our city is increasing in everything. Our expenses are increasing; but this must be expected, and it is also true that our revenue is increasing. If the new police arrangements work well, as they doubtless will, they will be worth to the city every dollar of what they cost. To have a perfectly efficient police—a police like that of New York city—is worth all that it will cost. Such a police we now expect to see. We have the material. The men composing the present force are as fine a body of policemen as any in the world; and when the new arrangements are perfected they will be indeed "a terror to evil-doers."

Temperance Meeting this Evening.

On the North Side, at the Indiana Street Methodist Church. It will be a meeting of interest, as able speakers are engaged to address the citizens at that place. The house will hold seven hundred, and will, we hope, be filled.

Police Officers—Their Mode of Appointment.—Some misunderstanding having arisen in relation to the mode of appointment of the police [illegible] as fixed by the new ordinance, it may be well to state [illegible] The Police [illegible] Constables are to be appointed by the Council.

The Policemen, the Sergeants, and the Lieutenants, by the Mayor, with the concurrence of the Committee on Police; [illegible]

The Captain by the Council, at the recommendation of the Mayor and Committee on Police.

POLICE COURT—Justice Millikin.
Chicago, Thursday, May 3, 1855.

Peter Han, stealing lumber, bound over in $25 00.

Wm. Farrel, John W. Stewart, James C. Brown, charged with robbery, bound over to appear at the Recorder's Court, in the sum of $700.

City Railroad from Cottage Grove.

We are soon to have railway cars drawn by horses running from the central parts of the city southward to Cottage Grove. The track will probably run either on Michigan or Wabash avenues. The sum of $50,000 has been subscribed towards the enterprise by responsible parties. It is the intention of the parties interested to have it completed from the Grove to the city limits by the 10th of August, and from the city limits to its terminus in the centre of the city by the 10th of November.

Who is Mrs. Macready?

As much curiosity prevails in our city in regard to the lady who is to commence on Monday evening a series of Dramatic Readings of an entirely new character here, we will state those facts in regard to her of which we are in possession.

Mrs. MARY MACREADY is a widow: a young and highly educated lady, and is the only child of wealthy and highly respectable parents residing in the state of Delaware. She received her elementary education at the academy at Georgetown, D. C., and afterwards graduated at the Wesleyan Female College of Delaware. At an early age she married Dr. Macready of Philadelphia, and removed to that city. In spite, however, of the prejudices of education and association, she manifested a strong predilection for the stage, which grew with her years and strengthened with the obstacles which she was obliged to encounter. Providence having made her the mistress of her own destiny, she determined to adopt the profession of an actress, and entered immediately upon the long and arduous course of study and training which is necessary to secure success in the higher walks of the profession.—After twenty months of study, she made her debut at Philadelphia on the 21st of February, 1853.

Since that time she has played in all the eastern cities.

Within the last year she has devoted herself to Dramatic Reading, and in this department of her profession her success has been great and unequivocal. In fact, both as an Actress and a Dramatic Reader, the press of the whole country speak of her in high terms.

Mrs. MACREADY makes her first appearance in Chicago on Monday evening, at Metropolitan Athenæum (late Metropolitan Hall), where we have no doubt she will be greeted by a large and fashionable audience.

☞ The tolls received at the Collector's Office in this city, for freights upon the Ill. and Mich. Canal for the last month, amount to $9,604.47.

New Produce Commission House.

J. McCALLA & Co., whose advertisement is in to-day's Tribune, have opened a new house in this city, north of the Galena Freight Depot, for the purchase and sale of grain and all descriptions of produce. We can speak from personal knowledge of McCalla as a man of probity and capital; and Mr. Dobson, one of the firm, is one of the best grain buyers in the city. Dealers may rely on their attending promptly to orders for the purchase and sale of grain and produce generally.

Antonio's Benefit.

The performance of the circus to-night will be for the benefit of "Antonio."

☞ Mellen & Co., 78 Dearborn street, have received Frank Leslie's Ladies Gazette for May,—a periodical of peculiar value to the ladies.

DAILY TRIBUNE.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

LOCAL MATTERS.

THE TRIBUNE.—Rumor hath it that the Tribune has changed hands; that its name is to be altered, and that its present principles and policy are to be abandoned. The only semblance of truth in the rumor is, that the number of proprietors and editors is to be increased, and the establishment put upon a basis of magnitude and strength unequalled by any other one West of New York. This arrangement will be announced in due time, and in the meantime the friends of the Tribune may be satisfied with the assurance that it will remain true and consistent in the support and advocacy of all measures that are calculated to advance the interests of Temperance, Morality and Religion, and to increase the strength of the Republican party.

This brief explanation is made unwillingly, and only to correct the unauthorized and contradictory rumors that are afloat. More anon.

The New Police Ordinance.

The Times don't like the manner in which the Police force of the city has been recently re-organized. Its ire is particularly directed against that provision of the New Ordinance, which, while it increases the police force to eighty men, divides them into three watches, so that two-thirds of the force shall be resting while the other third is on duty. The objection, if seriously made, shows the ignorance of the writer of what constitutes the very life and efficacy of a police force; namely, the existence of a body of men at such a spot and in such a condition, that they can be brought into ACTIVE AND EFFICIENT SERVICE AT A MOMENT'S WARNING. It is not the mere and actual presence of policemen that deters evil-doers from the commission of crimes, but rather a knowledge of the fact they will probably be discovered, and so strong a force instantly summoned that escape or resistance will be impossible.

Under the former system twenty-eight watchmen patrolled (or were supposed to patrol) the city throughout the entire night, or twelve hours. Now it must be evident to every one that no set of men in the world could perform such duties as were required of these men, for twelve hours on a stretch, and night after night in succession. They must have become weary and incompetent towards morning, and it would not be strange if they became drowsy and sleepy during the very hours that their services were required most. We do not know that this has ever been the case, but it would not be at all surprising.

Then again, these twenty-eight men constituted the entire night force. There was no reserve force. Suppose from two to five o'clock in the morning, ALL the watchmen were so overcome with drowsiness and fatigue as to be unable properly to discharge their duties. What a splendid chance for burglars and thieves would be then presented. "Who shall keep the city when the watchmen sleep?"

Under the present arrangement, the night force is not materially decreased in number, while its efficacy is greatly increased. The number of policemen on night duty will not be less than twenty-seven, besides a lieutenant and a sergeant, making twenty-nine. These twenty-nine men will be fresh and vigorous. They will only have to be on duty eight hours. They will have rested during the previous sixteen hours. There will be besides, in their immediate vicinity, an equal body of men as a reserved corps, who can, if necessary, be summoned to their assistance at a moment's warning. Thus the city will be guarded in reality by a force of between fifty and sixty men, all in good condition and in a high state of discipline, while only thirty of them are on actual duty, but these thirty, however, wide awake and fresh and vigorous.

We have not been careful to count the cost of the new arrangement. It will no doubt be somewhat greater than the late police force. But no reasonable man will complain of this. Our city is increasing in everything. Our expenses are increasing; but this must be expected, and it is also true that our revenue is increasing. If the new police arrangements work well, as they doubtless will, they will be worth to the city every dollar of what they cost. To have a perfectly efficient police—a police like that of New York city—is worth all that it will cost. Such a police we now expect to see. We have the material. The men composing the present force are as fine a body of policemen as any in the world; and when the new arrangements are perfected they will be indeed "a terror to evil-doers."

Temperance Meeting this Evening.

On the North Side, at the Indiana Street Methodist Church. It will be a meeting of interest, as able speakers are engaged to address the citizens at that place. The house will hold seven hundred, and will, we hope, be filled.

Police Officers—Their Mode of Appointment.

Some misunderstanding having arisen in re[illegible] to the mode of appointment of the police [illegible] as fixed by the new ordinance, it may be well to state [illegible] that

The Police [illegible] Constables are to be appointed by the Council.

The Policemen, the Sergeants, and the Lieutenants, by the Mayor, with the concurrence of the Committee on Police; and

The Captain by the Council, at the recommendation of the Mayor and Committee on Police.

POLICE COURT.—Justice Milliken.

Chicago, Thursday, May 3, 1855.

Peter Han, stealing lumber, bound over in $25 00.

Wm. Farrel, John W. Stewart, James C. Brown, charged with robbery, bound over to appear at the Recorder's Court, in the sum of $700.

City Railroad from Cottage Grove.

We are soon to have railway cars drawn by horses running from the central parts of the city southward to Cottage Grove. The track will probably run either on Michigan or Wabash avenues. The sum of $50,000 has been subscribed towards the enterprise by responsible parties. It is the intention of the parties interested to have it completed from the Grove to the city limits by the 10th of August, and from the city limits to its terminus in the centre of the city by the 10th of November.

Who is Mrs. Macready?

As much curiosity prevails in our city in regard to the lady who is to commence on Monday evening a series of Dramatic Readings of an entirely new character here, we will state those facts in regard to her of which we are in possession.

MRS. MARY MACREADY is a widow: a young and highly educated lady, and is the only child of wealthy and highly respectable parents residing in the state of Delaware. She received her elementary education at the academy at Georgetown, D. C., and afterwards graduated at the Wesleyan Female College of Delaware. At an early age she married Dr. Macready of Philadelphia, and removed to that city. In spite, however, of the prejudices of education and association, she manifested a strong predilection for the stage, which grew with her years and strengthened with the obstacles which she was obliged to encounter. Providence having made her the mistress of her own destiny, she determined to adopt the profession of an actress, and entered immediately upon the long and arduous course of study and training which is necessary to secure success in the higher walks of the profession.—After twenty months of study, she made her debut at Philadelphia on the 21st of February, 1853.

Since that time she has played in all the eastern cities.

Within the last year she has devoted herself to Dramatic Reading, and in this department of her profession her success has been great and unequivocal. In fact, both as an Actress and a Dramatic Reader, the press of the whole country speak of her in high terms.

Mrs. MACREADY makes her first appearance in Chicago on Monday evening, at Metropolitan Athenæum (late Metropolitan Hall), where we have no doubt she will be greeted by a large and fashionable audience.

☞ The tolls received at the Collector's Office in this city, for freights upon the Ill and Mich. Canal for the last month, amount to $9,604,47.

New Produce Commission House.

J. McCALLA & Co., whose advertisement is in to-day's Tribune, have opened a new house in this city, north of the Galena Freight Depot, for the purchase and sale of grain and all descriptions of produce. We can speak from personal knowledge of McCallas as men of probity and capital; and Mr. Dotson, one of the firm, is one of the best grain buyers in the city. Dealers may rely on their attending promptly to orders for the purchase and sale of grain and produce generally.

Antonio's Benefit.

The performance at the circus to-night will be for the benefit of "Antonio."

☞ Mellen & Co., 75 Dearborn street, have received Frank Leslie's Ladies Gazette for May—a periodical of peculiar value to the ladies.

More Tricks upon Travelers.

An interesting scene took place yesterday afternoon in the Police Court. A gentleman named Charles Wilson, accompanied by four ladies, members of his family, had arrived in this city from Vermont, the previous evening, en route for McHenry county, in this State. No sooner had the train stopped than they were beset as usual by the clamorous runners of certain public houses. Being unacquainted with the city they were prevailed on to go to the Rock Island House, kept by a Mr. Smith. They gave their checks up to the runner, who assured them that they need not have any further trouble about their baggage, that he would see it taken care of, and put on the train when they were ready to start, and that no extra charge would be made for it. In the morning they paid their bill at the Rock Island House, and were taken to the depot. Their baggage was taken down in a baggage wagon, the driver of which, Josiah Lee, charged them $1,25 cents more. On their refusal to pay this, Josiah hauls them up before Justice O'Malley on a capias, and sues them. O'Malley gave a judgment in favor of Lee for $3.05. Just as the judgment was rendered, however, officer Tenbrook, who had been watching the transaction, entered the room, arrested Josiah, and took him before Justice Milliken. On hearing the facts, he was fined $20 00 for driving a baggage wagon without a license.

Mr. Smith was then brought up. He keeps a licensed carriage, in which passengers are conveyed to his house free, but he also keeps a baggage wagon, and employs this Lee to drive it, and has suffered him to charge passengers extra sums for carrying their baggage. Thus by the extortion of his servant, these five persons had been delayed in the city a whole day, and subjected to the annoyance of a petty suit before Charley O'Malley. His Honor Mayor Boone being present, Justice Milliken referred Mr. Smith's case to him. Mayor Boone informed Mr. Smith that unless he refunded Mr. Wilson the $3 05, and paid him also $10 00, an amount sufficient to pay the expenses of his detention here, he should be obliged to revoke all his licenses. This he did, and the travelers repaired to the Sherman House, realizing that if they had been detained and annoyed in Chicago, they had also met with a prompt redress of their wrongs, and with every reparation in the power of the constituted authorities.

We trust that Mr. Smith will be more careful in future, and not permit those in his employ, and for whose conduct he is responsible, to practice any more trick upon travelers.

City Mortality.

At the close of every month we go to the office of the City Sexton, to obtain the data for making up our report of the city mortality for the month just ended. The answer invariably is: "No reports in." In a day or two we go again. By this time one, or perhaps two of the undertakers have sent in their reports, but still some are out, and so it runs on for days.

Now we would respectfully suggest to the undertakers of the city that they send in their reports immediately on the close of the month. It may as well be done then as a week later, and the public will be obliged to them, as we shall then be enabled to give the facts in regard to the city mortality, promptly.

Robbery.

John W. Stewart, James Brown, and William Farrel were examined yesterday before Justice Milliken on a charge of conspiracy to rob. It appears that a young Hoosier named Joseph Harris, on his way to Wisconsin, arrived in this city on Wednesday night, and was induced by Farrel, a hack driver, to go in his hack to the Union House, a hotel, as he said, where lodging was free. Brown the owner of the hack, and Stewart the proprietor of the house, also got in the hack and rode with him. On arriving at the house, Farrel showed the traveller to a room, which he unlocked with a key taken from his pocket, lighted a lamp, and then told him he would get the ticket that the landlord had been talking about in the carriage. The traveller gave him a $5 bill for that purpose, which Farrel took and sloped. Mr. Harris made complaint at the Police office yesterday, and the three men were arrested by officers Noyse and Williams.

On hearing the case, the three men appeared to be all so much implicated, that Justice Milliken held them all to bail, in sums of $200 and $300, to answer at the Recorder's Court.

Entries on the Complaint Book.

Thursday, May 3, 1855.

By Jonas Haynes: that Clark street, between Twelfth and Taylor is very filthy.

By Julius White: that the line of demarkation between the road-way and the side walk at the north east corner of South Water and Clark street, has been obliterated by the reduction of both to the same grade, and vehicles of all kinds passing over the bridge often pass over what is supposed by foot passengers to be the sidewalk. Several narrow escapes from death, or injury, by being driven over have come under my own observation. A post or two planted properly, would obviate the danger.

Board of Trade.

There was a good attendance at the Board of Trade Rooms yesterday, plenty of refreshments and a good feeling exhibited by the members in prospect of a good market and active times.

Vessels Through.

Several brigs and schooners, as will be seen by reference to the port list, arrived in port yesterday from Buffalo, having come round from Detroit and through the Straits this week. Several of them, it will be perceived, were loaded heavily with railroad iron for the Fox River Valley and other railroads.

Rioters Indicted.

The Grand Jury yesterday brought in several indictments against the parties in custody, for participation in the recent riots.

Overcharging.

A man named Nugent, the driver of a hack, was fined yesterday morning by Justice Milliken, in an exemplary sum, for exacting an exorbitant charge of a traveler.

Removal.

FRANKLIN WEBSTER, Esq., Attorney and Counsellor at Law, has removed from No. 55 Clark street, to No. 73 Randolph street, corner of Clark street.

☞ Attention is directed to the Advertisement of George S. McNight, offering a residence for sale, in a pleasant part of the city.

CHICAGO WHOLESALE MARKET.

CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE OFFICE, }
Thursday evening, May 3. }

The arrival of a fleet of vessels to-day, a portion of which are from the Lower Lakes, were pleasing signs to all interested in the Grain trade. That the Straits are now open to the passage of vessels is a sure fact, but from the immense fields of ice that have been floating in Lake Erie, it is hardly possible that the fleets from Oswego, Ogdensburg and Buffalo will reach here before next week. The vessels which arrived to-day will measurably relieve the warehouses, and grain holders will be enabled to command storage to some extent. The trade in Grain to-day remains dull, owing to facts previously explained;—but there has not been any further decline in any species of Grain, and though there has been no advance, there is more firmness in CORN than for three days past. A good many private contracts have been made for future delivery, and vessel owners are willing to contract at good prices for future delivery. An offer of 60c for 56 lbs was made for 100,000 bu afloat in June, July and August, and 70c asked; while two canal boat cargoes were offered afloat at 62½c for 56 lbs. Cargoes of WHEAT are held at 1,52½ on board, but buyers hold off, expecting to purchase lower. High freights prevent purchases.

The rates of FREIGHTS hence to Buffalo, Ogdensburgh, Oswego, &c., are likely to be exceedingly high. All the vessels coming up with R. R. iron, coal, merchandise and other heavy freights, can get full return cargoes of grain for a long time to come; 25c for wheat is asked to Oswego for vessels to arrive, and 20 cents to Buffalo. Two years ago in July cargoes of Wheat were taken to Buffalo at 3 and 3½ cents.—The lower lake vessels which arrived to-day are not yet taken up that we learn. The rates to be charged by the expected fleet are of course wholly imaginary; and, while some look for a decline, others feel sanguine that existing prices will continue for a week or two. Ten vessels are coming from Oswego, but most of them go to Milwaukee, and six of them are said to be chartered to arrive.

In other matters we notice no new feature, and give sales and nominal rates as follows:

EXCELSIOR
LIGHTNING ROD
MANUFACTORY.
Lightning Rods, Points, Glasses, Attachments,
AND ALL THE NECESSARY FIXTURES,
FOR SALE WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

THE undersigned takes pleasure in stating, that his arrangements are such that he is now prepared to furnish to agents or individuals a ROD and POINT, that is equal to finish, and in what constitutes a perfect Conductor, is not inferior to any manufactured in the North-west. Please notice the following description of Rod and Point manufactured by me.

DESCRIPTION OF ROD.

The Rod is of iron, made especially for the business, and I used exclusively by no other manufacturer, being full ¾ square iron fluted and twisted, thus giving a rod with a surface of full ⅜ of an inch, and combining more strength and surface than any other. The rods are all in ten feet lengths, connected together with a fine octagonal brass nut, and surmounted with a glass ring.

DESCRIPTION OF POINTS.

The Points are of solid copper from 8 to 14 inches long, plated from 6 to 10 inches from the tip with heavy silver; the tip of every Point has inserted in it a fine platina wire, and is also plated a half inch with platina plate. The above is the same kind of Point I have been manufacturing and selling for the past three years. My Points are stamped with my name.

The above Rod and Point, when put up with malleable iron attachments and glass insulators, forms the most perfect Light [illegible]

☞ Orders can be sent through the post office, or left at the manufactory, on Kinzie street, east of the Galena Railroad Depot, over John Tear's ship [illegible]

I. P. POINIER, Chicago.

I take pleasure in referring to the undersigned.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

ARRIVAL OF THE STAR OF THE WEST.

New York, May 3.

The details of the Star of the West are of little interest.

The miners were generally doing well and the accounts from the New Kern River district were as contradictory as ever.

In Sacramento, the municipal election resulted in the triumph of the whole K. N. ticket, except one alderman. James English is the Mayor.

Several San Francisco aldermen had been indicted for malfeasance and held to bail.

The scarcity of coin created much trouble in every branch of trade.

The annual report of the San Francisco mint shows a total of $6,760,000 in coin, and $86,434,-60 in bars.

About half of the town of Jackson had been destroyed by fire. Loss about $200,000.

The bill providing for the districting of the state had passed the Assembly, with an announcement which will render it a special election for Congressmen necessary, in December next. This will deprive the State of California of its representation in Congress for two or three months, as Messrs. Danvers and Herbert can never get their seats.

Advices from Utah, to the first of March, mention that Col. Steptoe, appointed to succeed Brigham Young as Governor of the Territory, had caused great discontent, and petitions were in circulation to have Young removed.

Yesterday as the Rev. Chas. H. Halsey, Rector of Christs Church and one of our most respected clergymen, was inspecting the work on a new edifice being erected for him, he fell through a window space to the ground, a distance of sixty feet and died about half an hour thereafter.

It is stated that at the time the supposed slaver Horatio, picked up off Key West, was fitting up in this city, the U. S. District attorney notified the Custom House authorities that she should be watched and they should be cautious in giving her register. The notice however appears to have been little heeded.

Letters from Granada, Nicaragua, mention that Col. Wheeler our minister to central America, was there and presented his credentials to the President on the 4th of April, where the customary civilities took place.

One of our papers says this morning that Col. Walker and 100 others sailed from San Francisco on the 31st of March, in the bark Success, for Central America, to join the Kinney expedition. We find no mention of it in our California files.

Consul Fabiens was brought up in the U. S. District Court to-day and ordered to find bail in $10,000. His trial is set down for Monday.

The bail of Consul Fabiens was fixed at $20,-000, instead of $10,000 as first reported. Edward Boyle of Rondout became his security but was refused.

At the cattle market to-day, the offerings were 157 head and all sold, prices ranging from $5,50 to $6,75 on the hoof; equal to 11a13c.

LATER FROM HAVANNA.

The steamship Black Warrior, from Havanna on the 28th ult. arrived here this morning.

The U. S. steamer San Jacinto, was still in port.

The Princeton sailed for Key West, on the morning of the 28th.

Havanna and the whole Island were in a state of quietude and no new arrests had been made.

Commodore McAuley, and the Captains of the U. S. vessels had been handsomely entertained at a banquet by the Captain General.

The market for sugars continued active and tendency upward.

Arthur S. Nevitt has been appointed Post Master at New Orleans vice B. W. Adams, declined.

Buffalo, May 3.

Our harbor is now open, and the ice has been driven up the lake to a considerable distance. The propeller Globe went out this morning with a good prospect of getting through. Three vessels left the port at noon, and are out of sight on the south shore. It is believed they will all get through without difficulty.

The Propeller Fintry has just arrived, the first boat of the season. She got through without much difficulty.

The southern mail, as late as due, is through from all parts.

The Hon. Isaac E. Morse was specially instructed by attorney General Cushing to prosecute Postmaster Kendall of New Orleans.

In the preliminary examinations the prosecution stated that it would be proved notes were stolen from a letter mailed at Memphis, that they were marked, and were found to have been afterwards disposed of by Mr. Kendall.

The ship Frank Pierce, has cleared at Charleston for Liverpool, with a cargo of cotton valued at $268,000.

The propellor that came in to-day was the Mary Stuart, of Detroit, instead of the Fintry. She reports the ice unusually thick and in large cakes. Several boats are getting ready to leave to-morrow.

Hartford, May 3d—7 P. M.

The Governor's Message was delivered this P. M. He recommends that the proposed amendment to the Constitution extending the right of suffrage to colored people, and refusing it to persons unable to read and write, be allowed to go before the people. He recommends an appropriation to the State Agricultural Society; says the income of the school fund has been $129,188, making $125 for each scholar; thinks it the duty of the Legislature to encourage education in every possible way, and is in favor of giving meritorious districts a copy of Webster's Dictionary. He says he should regard the repeal or modification of the prohibitory liquor law as detrimental to the best interests of the State; and that the effect of the law has been such as to recommend it to general favor; and by it crime has been lessened, misery alleviated, and the happiness of many a fireside perfected. The balance in the treasury at the close of the fiscal year is stated at $36,500. Appropriations for the deaf and dumb, blind, insane, and the State Reform School are recommended. He favors such a remodelling of the judiciary system as will tend to facilitate the settlement of cases. He says the banking institutions of the State are sound and healthy, and that the military will compare favorably with that of any other State.

Cincinnati, May 3.

At the municipal election in Indianapolis the Know Nothing city ticket was defeated by 200 majority; but that party nevertheless elected a majority of the Council.

Boston, May 2.

Late Halifax papers state that the most frightful diseases prevail along the coast. The Canadian French are the sufferers.

The Nova Scotia Parliament has been dissolved by proclamation of the Governor and a new election called for on the 22d inst.

Philadelphia, May 3d.

Hill, the American candidate for Commissioner, is elected by 197 majority.

The official majority for Morton, American, for Treasurer was 444.

Hartford, Ct., May 3.

The Legislature this A.M. elected William K. Minor, K. N., Governor of Connecticut for the ensuing year. The vote was: Minor, K. N. 177; Ingham, Dem., 76. The other K. N. State officers were elected. There is one of the finest parades to-day ever witnessed in this city. The Governor delivers his message this P. M.

Washington, May 3.

S. York Attlie has been removed from the clerkship in the 6th Auditor's office, Treasury Department. The cause assigned is Know Nothingism.

Sec. McClelland has issued a circular to the clerks of the Interior Department prohibiting their dealing in bounty land investments. One of the clerks says indignantly, he don't know that the Secretary has any right to prohibit their dealing in legitimate articles out of office hours.

Patterson, N. J., May.

The new bridge recently built over the Passaic River above the falls, fell this A. M., at the time when the test of 20 tons was applied. There were about 30 persons on it at the time it gave way, the most of whom were precipitated into the water. Two of them were severely injured, and it is feared there are some among the ruins, as a number are missing. This is the second suspension bridge which has been put over the river.

Boston, May 3.

The Mayor of several cities in Maine have issued proclamations directing the enforcement of the liquor law. The Mayor of Lawrence has made proclamation to the same effect.

Concord, N. H., May 3.

The American party in this State has, in State Council, adopted resolutions protesting against the repeal of the Missouri Compromise and against the Fugitive Slave Law, and pledging the party to resist the farther extension of slavery.

Schenectady, May 3.

The boat Murray, the first of the season, from New York, passed through here to-day with a load of merchandize for the west.

Sandy Hook, May 3.

No tidings of the Atlantic, now in her thirteenth day out from Liverpool. Weather close and cold.

Albany, May 3.

A letter dated Oswego, May 2nd, says the amount of labor to be done on the canals, will, in the opinion of the writer, delay the introduction of the water into the canal, the mills and the elevators on the east side of the river for 10 or 12 days. Four miles from Oswego the canal is navigable.

I will sing no more of sorrow .... J. L. Hatton.
A song of merit, with splendid lithograph. Words by Mark Lemon.

I will sing no more of sorrow,
Sadly dreaming of the morrow,
Seated here beneath the shade,
By a sweet breath'd Jasmine made.
I will laugh and sing to thee
Merrily, Jean, merrily, merrily.

The merry heart. Ballad, by William J. Wetmore, M.D. ....

What e'er the world may say,
For life has many sunny hours,
That never will fade away.

There's a path by the river o'ershadowed by trees,
Where people may walk, and may talk if they please;
And may be a bird not a sound can be traced,
So, do not come there if you please.

Stay with me. Song .... F. Abt.
One of the finest gems of German song.

The cypress and oak. Song and chorus by .... S. O. Bates.

LEADED NOTICES.

TO THE CITIZENS OF CHICAGO.

Positive evidence from a well known citizen of Chicago, as to the merits of Dr. JAMES McCLINTOCK'S FAMILY MEDICINES, which we give below, and trust those who have bad colds and coughs will take advice, and not be humbugged by the trash in the market, for the sake of fashion.

CHICAGO, Feb 14, 1855.

Messrs. Scott & Simpson—

Gentlemen—Allow me to state, for the good of the public, and for the especial purpose of depreciating the distress, sufferings, and the sale of humbugs in the shape of "Cough Candy," and other nostrums for the cure of colds and coughs. I have tasted this kind of trade for the last three weeks, and proved to my satisfaction, that it contains no merit, and the sale of such remedies should be wholly suppressed. Last Friday I purchased of you 1 bottle Dr. James McClintock's Cold and Cough Mixture, for which I paid you 25 cts, and in less than 24 hours, I was perfectly cured of my cough. I hope, gentlemen, you will publish this to the world. Dr. James McClintock is well known, and his medicines can be relied upon. Yours respectfully, C. T. ROBINSON.

McClintock's Family Medicines are sold, wholesale and retail, by SCOTT & SIMPSON, 67 Randolph street.

IT SHALL, AND MUST BE EXECUTED.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to the Citizens of Chicago, and vicinity, that we hold ourselves responsible to every individual who purchases the following Remedy for any of the diseases here named, the said individual receiving no benefit, will, on presentation of the Bottle at our Store, receive the purchase money. We make this statement, knowing the merits of the medicine; and, knowing that it is valuable for every family to have on hand, in case they require medicine.

ADAMS' LIVER BALSAM.

Is sure to cure LIVER COMPLAINTS;
Is warranted to cure BILLIOUS FEVERS;
Is the best article known for any kind of PILES;
Will cure CHRONIC LUNG COMPLAINTS;
Never fails to cure JAUNDICE;
Is warranted to cure SCROFULA and SALT RHEUM;
Always cures DYSPEPSIA and INDIGESTION;
Immediately restores LOSS OF APPETITE;
Cures GENERAL DEBILITY, to which all are subject;
And for FEMALE COMPLAINTS is the best article before the American people.

This celebrated Remedy has faced all opposition, and passed quietly through "the midst of" its neighbor nostrums, literally leaving its Bitter in the mouth, but sweet to the belly," of hundreds who are now its constant supporters.

Hundreds of Certificates might be published, but he deems it useless—all we ask is a trial. If the Compound does not prove fully equal to our assertion, your money shall be refunded for the bottle empty. These statements, be it known, are not made to deceive the public, for ourselves and Agents generally are authorized to take the same measures and carry them out.

Sold by SCOTT & SIMPSON, Wholesale and Retail, 67 Randolph st., Chicago, Ill., and by all Druggists in the city.
